Please note that this revision is subject to formal approval at the meeting of the Board of Directors scheduled for late May 2007.

1. Specifics of the revision

2. Reason for this revision of projected dividends

Reflecting steady growth of overall business, particularly in the area of wires and cables, and in response to shareholder support, Hitachi Cable has decided to issue a commemorative dividend of 1.50 yen at the end of Fiscal 2007. This dividend is intended to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the company's spin-off from Hitachi, Ltd. The projected year-end dividends have been revised accordingly to 5.00 yen/share: 3.50 yen/share in ordinary dividends and 1.50 yen/share in commemorative dividends.
